

Jenkins Accepted for Membership to Phi Beta Lambda

2-22-85

Pamela Jenkins, a 1984 graduate of Wasatch High School has been selected for membership to the Phi Beta Lambda organization at the Stevens-Henager College of Business in Provo, Utah.

Phi Beta Lambda is a national organization for students in postsecondary institutions who are enrolled in business programs. The activities of PBL provide an opportunity for business students to prepare for business and office occupations.

In order for students to be a member of Phi Beta Lambda they must achieve a 3.0 (B), or above, grade point average.

Pamela Jenkins

Pamela is studying the Executive Secretarial Course taught at Stevens-Henager. The course will enable Pamela to fill secretarial positions in executive suites of today's major enterprises.

In addition, Pamela is a member of the LDS Institute of Religion Counsel. The organization is under the direction of the Educational System of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

The Stevens-Henager College of Business also has branches in Salt Lake City and Ogden. For information call: (801) 272-8881.
